

Competency Statement – Decon Presentation

Unique Module Number: DA0013 A

Module Name: Decontamination

Objective (Purpose): Upon completion, participants will be able to:

State the reasons decon is a necessity, demonstrate good decon procedures and understand the importance of decontamination to your family and the environment

Prerequisites: None

-

Date: 4/27/18

Version: 1

Conditions:

Recommended Delivery

1. Qualifications Instructor must have Practical knowledge and adequate field experience in the field of environmental drilling and EPA regulations to demonstrate the importance of decon to the environment and employee safety and health.

2. Media, Demonstration and practical given:

Glow germ and black light

Clean equipment to be contaminated, dirty looking equipment.

Decon ppt and video

3. Estimated time of delivery 30 min

4. Environment Class room or field

5. Resources

EPA guide to field cleaning drilling equipment

6. References

National drilling association safety manual,

7. Recommended maximum participant/instructor ratio.

- › Classroom – 1/10
- › Practical – 1/5

8. Resources for Participants:

National drilling association safety manual

Review:

Participants should be able to state the reasons decon is a necessity, demonstrate good decon procedures and understand the importance of decontamination to your family and the environment

Assessment:

verbal